MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Alexandra Asuncion Regino v. Comm'r of Soc. Sec.
20 Civ. 8518 (RA) (BCM)

Dear Judge Moses:

Pursuant to the schedule in the above-referenced Social Security case, the defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings is due October 12, 2021. We write respectfully to request that the time for filing the defendant's brief be adjourned for three weeks, to November 2, 2021. The reason for this request is the many competing deadlines on the calendar of the undersigned due to an increased number of Social Security filings and delay in preparation of the records in those cases. We attempted to obtain the consent of plaintiff, who is proceeding pro se, but she did not consent, stating that she preferred not to delay this case. No prior adjournment of the briefing schedule has been requested, although the Court did grant two adjournments of the time to file the record. We appreciate the Court's consideration of this matter.

Respectfully,

AUDREY STRAUSS
United States Attorney

Application GRANTED. Defendant shall file her brief no later than November 2, 2021. No further extensions of defendant's deadlines will be granted. Plaintiff shall file her response no later than January 3, 2022. Defendant shall file any reply no later than January 24, 2022.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this Order to the pro se plaintiff.
SO ORDERED.
